Aspelund's Automation controls & Refrigeration AND Aspelund's Heating & Plumbing

Welcome to another new business in Chateaugay located at 10 Harrison Ave. Andrew Aspelund is the owner of both of these businesses. He has two employees: a service technician, Adam Watson and an office manager, Nicole King.

The business started in 2013 in Constable where he was doing strictly commercial businesses. After listening to his customers' suggestions, he decided to buy a location here in Chateaugay and incorporate residential into his business plan to meet the needs of all consumers. Andrew's business specializes in heating (gas, fuel, natural gas, and propane), plumbing, refrigeration, air conditioning, ice makers, milk tanks, building automation, and motor control.

You may call the office Monday-Friday 8-4 and his Office Manager will be happy to set you up with an appointment. He is fully insured, and certified. He offers free estimates and he is currently running a special on furnace cleanings at $99.99+tax that will last through fall of 2016.
He is currently living in Constable with his wife Sabrina (the daughter of Raymond Wilcox from Chateaugay) and their 6 year old twins Charles and Rayanna.

Andrew brought this company to Chateaugay in hopes of providing the community with reputable service at a fraction of the cost. Mr. Aspelund offers 24/7 emergency services, and prides himself on customer satisfaction.

We wish Andrew the very best in his new business in Chateaugay. Cut out his business card, because you just never know when you may need it!
